From the Pastor..... Church Family,

Did you read Jeremiah 28 this morning? Jeremiah v. Hananiah. What a great chapter! We are a people who love options. Everything comes with multiple options. LCD or Plasma. Apple or Windows. Would you like your coffee with skim or whole milk; sweet 'n low or sugar, and how many packets or scoops would you like – shot of espresso? Options are everywhere. With options come salespeople trying to convince you that one is better than the other. So many people talking about so many things. Then it comes to the really critical issues of your life – who are you, how do you feel about yourself, how do you feel about your family, etc. and you “hear” so many voices. You can choose who or what you listen to. Who you listen to makes all the difference.

Be careful who you listen to out there. Be diligent to sit at the feet of our God and live by His Word, and His Word alone. He is faithful to accomplish everything He says. He is faithful to you, to your marriage, to your children, and to the rest of your family. His Word is true.

How about that scene when Hananiah takes the yoke off of Jeremiah's neck and breaks it on the ground!!!! I would have loved to have seen the “expression” on God's face when Hananiah did that. Yikes.

Have a powerful day knowing God's word is true and He is faithful!

Pastor Jim

Women's Ministry.....

Join us at the Titus II Women's Retreat at Trinity Pines Resort on Lake Livingston. We're going to have an awesome time of retreat, relaxation, and fellowship. Our topics this year are Worship & Celebration. Cost is $60/lady and includes one night's lodging, breakfast, lunch Saturday, and shared gas. If you have not signed up and would like to attend please see Denise Kellogg for sign-up. The deadline to sign up is October 19, 2008

Worship Ministry.....

Falling colored leaves. Cool crisp temperatures. Harvest time. Getting the sweaters out of storage. Bundling up for a hayride. Looking forward to the holidays. Planning for the fall festival. Doing a little of shopping ahead of time for Christmas. All these are part of the things I love about this time of year. It brings back some awesome memories and makes me so very thankful for the many blessings God pours out on me. It also reminds me of many people who have never been a part of a family with the love and warmth and feelings, tastes and smells that we take for granted. I would love to invite you to be a part of the worship ministry this fall and experience "family". We have a great time every Wednesday night at 6:30 in the choir room preparing for Sunday mornings. We are also working on music for the holidays. Come be a part! For more information please see Pastor Randy.

Youth Ministry.....

Checkpoint will be in the Chapel @ 6:15 tonight; we will all meet together. The 1 Peter passage we will be studying is highly evangelical so it is a great week to invite your friends—specifically those who aren't believers. Saturday morning the Student Ministry will be going to Cambridge. If you want to go or can drive, please be in the Chapel parking lot at 9:35 am Saturday.
